TAKING THE LEAP: MY JOURNEY SO FAR

Speaker: Eric Wright

Length: 20 to 45 minutes

This is a short talk about my journey as an artist who walked away from a good paying job to pursue a passion of fine art.

About the Speaker:

Eric Wright graduated from the University of North Texas with a Bachelor of Fine Arts in Communication and Design, and worked as a commercial artist for 23 years. During that time, he also received a Master of Arts in Management and Media Communication from Webster University, St. Louis. In May 2008, he left the corporate job of 17+ years to pursue his passion and calling of fine art and sculpture. His current work of concrete cubes results from working in a corporate cubicle for a prolonged period. He is an active volunteer in the Oklahoma City art community and serves on the board of directors for OVAC and the El Reno Arts Council. He is also an adjunct art appreciation instructor at Redlands Community College.

Location: El Reno

Will travel: Up to 100 miles

Maximum number of attendees: NA

Speaker Fee: Negotiable
