“24 Works on Paper” Exhibition Travels Across Oklahoma

A collaborative project from Individual Artists of Oklahoma & Oklahoma Visual Arts Coalition STATEWIDE – 24 Works on Paper, the only travelling exhibition of work by living Oklahoma artists, will open to the public on July 18 from 6-9 pm at the Individual Artists of Oklahoma (IAO) gallery, 811 N Broadway in downtown Oklahoma City. Produced as a collaboration between IAO Gallery and the Oklahoma Visual Arts Coalition (OVAC), the exhibition will then travel the state for a full year, bringing original, contemporary Oklahoman artwork to viewers in communities large and small.

The 24 Works on Paper exhibition features 24 artists from 12 Oklahoma cities. All artworks are created on paper and include media such as printmaking, drawing and photography. The 2009 guest juror is Adrienne Day. Day has been working as an artist for over 20 years. Her work has been exhibited extensively across the US and Europe at museums, galleries and cultural centers. Day holds a Bachelor of Fine Arts from the University of Oklahoma and a Masters of Fine Arts from Arizona State University. In 2007, she organized the Suite Oklahoma Exchange Portfolio, which included 18 Oklahoma printmakers.

The exhibition will continue at IAO Gallery through August 8. Gallery hours are Wednesday, Thursday and Saturday, noon-5:30 pm and Friday noon- 8 pm. It will then travel to venues across Oklahoma such as the Eleanor Hays Gallery in Tonkawa, East Central University in Ada, Southwestern Oklahoma State University in Weatherford, Tulsa Artists Coalition in Tulsa, and Redlands Community College in El Reno. More information is available at www.24works.org or at 405-232-6060.

24 Works on Paper is sponsored by Allied Arts, American Fidelity Foundation, Oklahoma Arts Council and NBC Bank.
